Call to Worship

Carla Flowers

Lay reader

One: Welcome, travelers.

Many: Welcome.

One: Sometimes it is harder to cross an unrepaired sidewalk than to travel a thousand miles.

Many: Sometimes it is harder to forgive a brother or sister than to welcome a stranger.

One: But God teaches us that we should welcome both friends and strangers as we would welcome Jesus Christ.

All: However far we have come this week, we joyfully bring gifts of ourselves, our minds, our compassion, our love, and our dedication. Let us continue the journey together.

Hymn 206 I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

The children are invited to come forward for their special time following the procession of the choir.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Road Trip: Navigating Life's Journey

Where to Start

Philippians 3:4-11

WE RESPONDResponse to the Word

One: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation or distress, or persecution or famine, or nakedness or peril or sword?

Many: No! In all things we are more than conquerors through the One Who loved us. We are sure that neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Thanks be to God! Amen.
